

ELYAHOU LALLOUZ TO DONATE IN EXCESS OF 100K IN ART THIS YEAR

Renowned artist, A. Elyahou Lallouz will donate in excess of $100,000.00 in art this year alone. Mr. Lallouz is reaching out to support charities in hope that their fund raising structure will enable them to capitalize upon his philanthropic efforts. His goal is to raise in excess of $500,000.00 for Charities this year. Supporting the Homeless is one of his top priorities, therefore he is donating a series of paintings to be auctioned through various events which will take place via The South Florida Coalition for the Homeless.

Grandson of the French Ambassador Extraordinary to Morocco, Lallouz was born in Casablanca, to a family of nobility. Although their lives were plentiful, they were always benevolent to the needy. Lallouz has faint recollection of memories as a child in Morocco, however the countless stories which he can recite, through which were transferred by his family; stories of the indigent and the impoverished and the hunger which enveloped the less fortunate neighborhoods, remain strikingly clear in his mind today.

You can often catch him taletelling to his own children about the current situation of the Homeless and Hungry. It is not uncommon for the junior Lallouzes to reach into their child sized pockets, in order to share some spare change with the needy. In fact Lallouz's children encourage one another of benevolent continuity, and all that it represents.

With a McGill University background in Theater, Cinema and the Arts, Lallouz' global travels have enabled him to live in several European countries, hence allowing him to work on humanitarian documentary assignments, theatrical events and freelance artistic endeavors. Lallouz himself, has seen the detriment which overruns our world today. While you can't save the world single handed, Lallouz feels that you can put forth your best effort to start somewhere.
